

I'm Sara-Jayne. Former insolvency lawyer and teacher turned housewife and photographer, writer, tabletop games streamer and public speaker.

Keep Up With the Jones Family has been written by me over the past 8 years to capture our life in Hampshire, England. It covers every aspect of being part of a family, and although we specialise in creative product photography, we also enjoy everything that the world of social media has to offer.

I've hosted online exhibition booths, Instagram takeovers, attended and covered a wide range of events, spoken and taught at workshops and conferences, been a proud ambassador for brands, and so much more.

If you'd like to work with me, you can be confident that your project will be handled beautifully, your content created with meticulous attention to detail, and when published on our platforms, engaged with naturally.
